

Accident Management

Personal injury service

An independent service from legal experts

Whilst we aim to prevent accidents, we can't eliminate them completely and unfortunately when they occur, some of your drivers are likely to sustain injuries. We believe that any personal injury claims for your drivers should be handled independently by legal experts. That's why we work closely with specialist personal injury solicitors to ensure your drivers get a first class service.

An excellent service from experienced advisors means you can:

- › Receive a high quality claims service tailored to your needs
- › Benefit from over 60 years of personal injury claims experience
- › Ensure no conflict of interest during the initial claim handling period
- › Gain peace of mind knowing the RAC will control recovery of the driver's losses
- › Trust the experts to provide a solution that conforms to changing legislation

In the event of a personal injury claim, you'll want to ensure that your drivers receive a quality service from legal experts who are up to date with current legislation and case law.
